Testimonials From Key IMDA Members:

"I place a high value on being part of the IMDA. There is no other group that brings together the metal decorating supply chain quite like the IMDA. It is a one stop shop for getting the information needed to improve the quality and standards of the metal decorating and packaging process. As a decorator it gives me direct access to potential technology partners and suppliers." ~ PHIL SHAUGHNESSY, CROWN CORK & SEAL

"I have personally been an IMDA member since 1994. Introducing new technologies in the market requires a lot of effort and networking and the IMDA provides the idea platform for that. With the IMDA we have an organization doing a great job promoting the latest technology globally to foster and encourage advances in the art of metal decorating."

~ RICK CLENDENNING, INX INTERNATIONAL
